WASHINGTON, June 26. The steamer Guy has returned from her trip down the Potomac river, on Tuesday afternoon. She steamed to Matthias' Point, in company of the Pawnes, when they discovered that the Confederates had arrived, apparently about 800 strong, and were encamped about a mile back rom the Point, near a marsh.

The Pawnee opened fire upon the Rebel camp, under cover of which three boat loads of men were landed. The enemy fied in all directions, but the Federal force not being adequate, no pursuit was made. Two horses, and some overcoats and camp equipage, were captured by the crew.

They were there for the purpose of erecting a battery, but had not yet succeeded, owing to the difficulty of transporting their guns, etc.

BELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANIS. Mehave put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when thesely used. Never did we know an instance of disastisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience. AND FLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULLILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been made with NEWER SHIP.

BLOOD RENOVATOR

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the tacte, it is revivifying, exhilarating, invigorating and aircenthening to the vital powers, and at the same time revivifies, rein states, and renews the Blood in all its purity, and thus at once restores and renders the system in valuerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world, so chemically and skilifully combined as to be the most pawerful tonic, and at the same time so perfectly idapted to, as to act in perfect accordance with the law of nature, and hence will each the weekest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and thus allay all nervous and other irritation. It is perfectly exhitarating, and at the same time is composed entirely of vegetables, yet so combined as to produce the most thorough tonic effect, without producing any injurious consequences. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, for it needs no medical shift to see that deblifty follows all attacks of disease, and proceeds and indeed lays the system open to the insidious attacks of many of the most fath, such for example, as the following: Consumption, in digestion, Dyspopeia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, Retention of, as well as Palmid obstructed too profuse, or too cent Menstruation, and Falling of the Womb. These all depend upon general debitity. This pure, healthy, tonic Cordial and Blood Benovator it as sure to cure as the sun to rise and set. There is no mistake about it. But this is not all. If the system is weakened, we are open to billous attacks, the liver becomes torpid, or worse discased, the kidnoys refuse to perform their functions, and we see troubled with scalding and incontinence of urine, or involuntary discanding of the same, paln in the back, side and between the shoulders, exceedinily liable to allebt colds, coughs, and if unchecked, soon emedical to the many its to which we are l

colds, coughs, and it unchecked, soon emeciation follows, and the patient goes down to a premature grave. But space will not allow us to enumerate the many His to which we are liable in a weakened condition of the system. But we will say, in this Cordial and Blood Renovator you have a perfect, afe, pleasant and effectual remedy for less of Appetite, billowances, Flatulence, weak and sick Stomach, Languor. Liver Complaint. Chills and Fever, or any Billous attack, Cossiveness, Acioty of the Stomach, Nervousness, Neuraigia, Paipitadon of the Heart, Depression of Spirita, Sores, Pimples on the Face, or any disease arising from moure blood, such as Scrofula, Erysipelas, Brombits, Cough, difficulty of Breathing, and all that belass of diseases called female weakness, and seinsmented above. We will also any the traveler exposed to epidemics, change of climate and water, will find it a pleasant, as and sure remedy, and none should ever travel without. Reader, try it, for we assure you you will find in it a friend indeed, as well as cure for those aliments to which they are particularly exposed. Hence minister, students, all torneys, licerary gentlemen, and ladies who are not accustomed to much outdoor exercise, will find it to their advantage to keep a bottle constantly on hand; and, anove all, mothers, or these becoming such; will go through that most dangerous period actually with all their accustemed strength, but safe and free from the thousand silments so prevalent among the female portion of the world. It short, it is indeed a mother's cordial. Try it, old and young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will will young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will will young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will will young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will all young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will will young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will will young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will all young; no longer run the risk of delay; it will all young; no longer run the risk of delay;
